

Date

2004

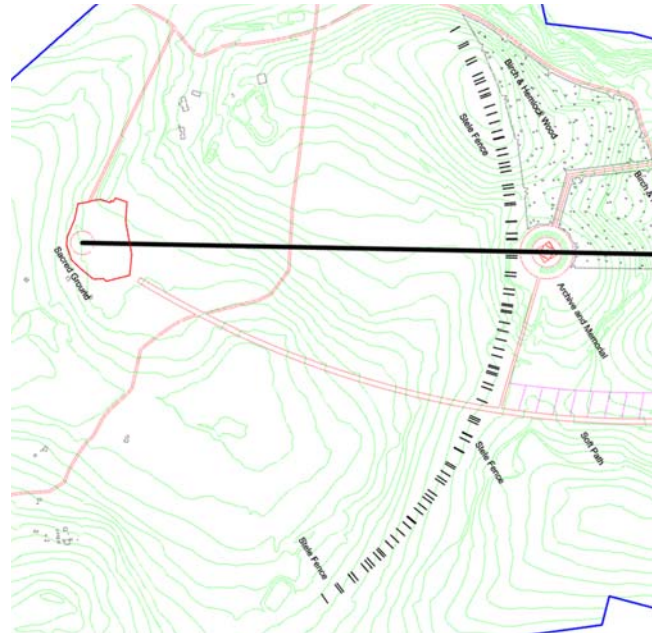

Client

Flight 93 memorial Committee

Status

Competition Entry -

Awards

Description

Flight 93 was one of the aircraft hijacked as part of the 911 attacks in the US. This memorial proposal was for the crash site of Flight 93. A cordon sanitaire was defined by a series of stone columns. Two paths led from the visitor centre to the site, one direct and fast, the other curved and slow. Visitors could decide on which path to travel.

