

Date

2009

Client

Private Client

Status

Completed

Awards

Description

Innovative conversion of a lower ground floor Victorian Villa with minimal infrastructural changes.

The development of this plan type has emerged through a series of similar iterative plan developments based on key legislative requirements in relation mainly to fire safety. Using an ultra efficient circulation concept of a central glazed lobby at the core of what is a pinwheel provides the maximum space for living.

